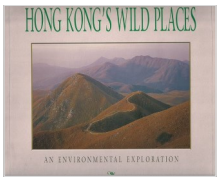
Secondary Geography and History

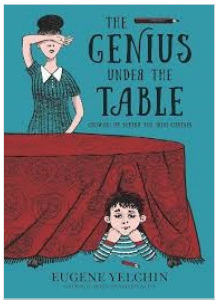


Hong Kong's Wild Places : an Environmental Exploration

Author: Edward Stokes

Call number: 915.125 STO

Follow Edward Stokes on this unforgettable journey across Hong Kong's natural landscape, and learn along the way the story of Hong Kong's environment.

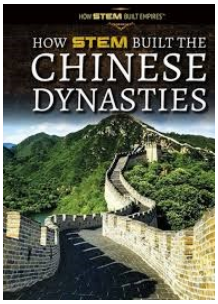


The Genius Under the Table : Growing Up Behind the Iron Curtain

Author: Eugene Yelchin

Call number: 927.5 YEL

Eugene Yelchin recounts growing up in Cold War Russia.

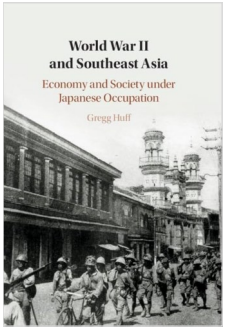


How STEM Built the Chinese Dynasties

Author: Michael Hessel-Mial

Call number: 951 HES

The history of STEM is often viewed through prominent figures like Archimedes and Newton. However, China's contributions include many anonymously perfected inventions that evolved over long periods and spread through diffusion, highlighting a more complex narrative beyond individual brilliance.

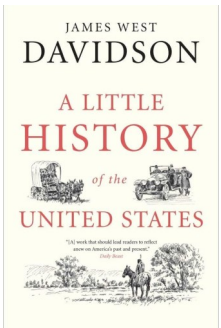


World War II and Southeast Asia : Economy and Society Under Japanese Occupation

Author: Gregg Huff

Call number: 959 HUF

Gregg Huff provides a comprehensive analysis of the Japanese occupation's economic and social impact on Southeast Asia during World War II, essential for understanding the region's historical and economic context.



A Little History of the United States

Author: James West Davidson

Call number: 973 DAV

Describes how the United States' evolution from initial cultural contact to superpower status, highlighting its struggle to balance the contradictory goals of diversity, freedom, and equality.